

CHERYL KASSNER, CEO OF TECHNOLINK OF THE ROCKIES NAMED TO TECHNOLOGY ASSURANCE GROUP MEMBERS' ACTION TEAM

Kassner Asked to Join Advisory Board for $350 Million Business Technology Organization

ENGLEWOOD, CO — September 22, 2015 — Technolink of the Rockies, a leader in unified communications, announced today that Cheryl Kassner, the company's CEO, has been named to Technology Assurance Group's Members' Action Team. TAG is an international organization of independently owned unified communications and business technology companies collectively representing nearly $350 million in products and services in the technology industry. The Members' Action Team acts as TAG's advisory board.

TAG provides its Members with the competitive advantages necessary to achieve a dominant position in their marketplace. Members benefit from programs including strategic partnerships with business technology solution providers and best business and management practices. TAG Members integrate all technology solutions including IT, telecommunications, AV, surveillance, videoconferencing, managed services and managed print. Members benefit from a variety of programs including best business and management practices, advanced sales training and processes, in-depth financial analysis and benchmarking, and strategic partnerships with technology manufacturers. Its primary purpose is to advance their Members' businesses through education and cooperative effort.

The MAT team is a special subset of Members who have been elected based on their experience and success as a unified communications business technology solutions provider. They are exemplary businessmen and are helping to carve a path for others to follow. Their mission is to assist TAG in developing innovative programs for Members and providing valuable insight into what Members need to enhance their businesses.

"It was an honor to be selected," stated Cheryl Kassner. "I was thrilled to even be considered for such a position, because I have a deep sense of respect for the TAG Membership. They are the best companies in our industry and I learn so much from being around such intelligent people."

Brian Suerth, President of TAG, commented, "Brian has always stepped up when leadership opportunities arose. She is very active in the organization and has always been a shining example for others to aspire to. We're pleased to have her as part of this group and thrilled that he will be joining the MAT team."
